¡Buenas noches, monstruos!

ANAYA

Joaquín tiene sueño y apaga
la lamparita de la mesilla
de noche.

Pero al monstruo del armario
le da miedo la oscuridad

y se mete en la cama de Joaquín.
